MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM:

SUBJECT:

Status of William E. Colby's Manuscript

1. Action Requested: None. This paper is prepared for your meeting this afternoon with Mr. Colby.

2. Background: In the event the status of Mr. Colby's manuscript is discussed in your meeting, there are two unresolved issues at this point. The first relates to Chapter 13 and his recounting of his press contacts to protect [redacted] (a copy of the pertinent portions of Chapter 13 are attached). [redacted] A/DDS&T, has reviewed Mr. Colby's latest proposal and objects to reference to the second mission of the [redacted] [redacted] but has suggested an alternate approach that would not relate to the degree of success while providing a basis for dealing with the press. Mr. Colby feels this statement is required to justify his actions in going to the press to maintain the cover story. The second unresolved matter relates to six pages received from Mr. Colby on 2 November which outline a typical day for the DCI. This is now being circulated to the various Directorates for their comments. Mr. Colby has accepted our requests for deletions to date. The DDO has given a green light to the manuscript as adjusted. Mr. Colby further has agreed to furnish the Agency with a copy of the galley proofs for our final review.

Dear Bill,

Jack Blake was thoughtful enough to make me, and in accordance with your wishes only me, aware of your most generous recent contribution to the Public Service Aid Society. May I express both official appreciation on behalf of the institution and, simultaneously, extend my personal respect for your most thoughtful act.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER

The Honorable William E. Colby

Dear Jack -

This time let me
ask in advance that you not announce this - just let it do some small amount of good -
Lots of best wishes -

Bill
